My dear Mirza,

I am desired by His Highness the Maharaja to address you regarding the disposal of papers during his absence in the North.

I am to request that you or the officiating Dewan will dispose finally of all papers except those that you consid of such importance that they should be retained for submission after His Highness's return.

I am further to ask that the papers so disposed of may be sent to me for perusal so that I may keep myself in touch with the progress of affairs.

On His Highness's return to the Capital I am to request that there may be submitted for his orders all the important papers that have been retained for that purpose, and for his perusal any of the papers disposed of that I may have indicated, together with a list of the remainder.

A copy of His Highness's tour programme will be forwarded to you as soon as the Railway arrangements are completed.

Yours sincerely,
